A broad range of research into Australian and British Commonwealth Military History can be undertaken. For Australian service personnel, the standard charge to provide biographical, service, medals, battles, etc details is $50. Rates for other research can be advised on request. Most tasks can be completed within two weeks.

Mostly Unsung continues to locate and develop new resources for researching military history. Recent examples include Long Service and Good Conduct Medal rolls 1831-1901; New Zealand Wars casualties; Boer POWs 1899-1902, Boer War Field Intelligence reports; Troop Transports and Hospital Ships at Gallipoli; Australian civil pilot licences pre 1939; Civil Construction Corps 1939-45; Royal Papuan Constabulary etc records World War Two and King's Police Medal etc recipients Africa 1936-52.

Our Boer War holdings are still without equal and include computerised medal and clasp entitlements for Australian Contingents to the Boer War 1899-1902 (with 1000 more than listed in Murray's); plus all medal rolls and service papers for most Irregular units, etc.

Neil and Sylvie Smith will again be researching at The National Archives, the National Army Museum, London Metropolitan Archives and Imperial War Museum in London in late August 2019. Your research tasks are welcome.

RESEARCHER'S NOTICEBOARD

Australia faced many enemies during World War Two – Germans, Italians Vichy French and the Japanese. Rarely however, have the Chinese been identified as an antagonist. An exception resulted in the death of several Australian Prisoners of War at the hands of Chinese troops or bandits, near Hoban on 8th April 1944. Others were wounded. All men were members of the 2/21st Infantry Battalion who had fought on Ambon before being overwhelmed; then survived the Laha massacre and subsequent transportation to a POW camp on Hainan Island. As part of a wood chopping party, these men and their Japanese guards were ambushed in their vehicle en route to the work area. No Japanese survived and the following Australians were killed in the action:

VX47338 Pte Armstong, James Frederick, Orbost, vic
VX40878 Pte Claxton, Victor George, Shepparton, Vic
VX39990 Pte Cornell, Leslie George, Brunswick, Vic
VX60120 Pte Dyer, Charles Frederick, Shepparton, Vic
VX26511 Sgt Gilder, Kelvin Ray, In charge of party, Essendon, Vic
VX47315 Pte Higgins, Myles, Died from malaria after he escaped the ambush
VX47793 Pte Hynes, Roy Santilla, Deniliquin, NSW
VX53777 Pte McKenzie, Charles George, Pomborneit, Vic
VX25415 Pte Russell-Talbot, Henry Edward, Ballarat, Vic
